Article 1: FORMATION – NAME – DURATION

A non-profit-making international association governed by the provisions of Section III of the Belgian Act of June 27th, 1921, concerning non-profit-making Associations and international non-profit-making Foundations and Associations is hereby created. The name of the Association is “ASSOCIATION EUROPEENNE DES GAZ DE PETROLE LIQUEFIES / EUROPEAN LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GAS ASSOCIATION”, hereinafter referred to as “AEGPL”.

Its duration is unlimited.

The AEGPL’s head office will be in Belgium at:
Rue Belliard 15-17
B – 1040 Brussels

Article 2: AIM

i) AEGPL is aiming to:

- Be the representative voice of the LPG Industry in Europe in non-commercial domains
- Communicate with EU authorities and other institutional bodies, organizations and associations present in Europe (this term being used in its widest sense for the purposes of the present document), in order to create an environment conducive to greater use of LPG, in particular, through the adoption of legislation on energy, the environment, human health, safety, transport, taxation, energy efficiency, and standardization.
- Support the general interests of all its members and promote the reputation of the industry in the eyes of European policy-makers and opinion leaders.
- Undertake all non-commercial activities corresponding to the mission outlined above.

ii) To achieve its missions, AEGPL is empowered to undertake, among others, the following activities:

- Join or cooperate with any organ or institution of the European Union and/or the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe as well as any other organ or institution, specialized or not, public or not, having a direct or indirect influence on the legislative environment impacting LPG in Europe.
- Participate in and/or organize any type of non-commercial meeting on behalf of its members or third parties;
- Prepare, write, distribute and communicate information, statements, proposals, and positions;

- Participate in meetings with experts and authorities with a view to communicating and advocating the position of the industry;
 - Coordinate studies and enquiries and participate in research and development programs
 - Establish a tri-annual strategic plan, an action plan, and an annual budget on the basis of the objectives to be attained;
 - Co-ordinate its general objectives with the World LP Gas Association

Article 3: MEMBERS: ADMISSION – RESIGNATION – EXPULSION

- i) The membership may consist of either:
 - “FULL MEMBERS”, each with voting rights, or
 - “AFFILIATE MEMBERS”, with collective voting rights.
- ii) FULL MEMBERS are: National Associations of LPG Distributors in their country, Pan-European and National LPG Distributors.

(a) For a National Association to be admitted as a “FULL MEMBER”, it must:

- represent a European country (EU or non-EU member states) or an EU contracting country
- be representative, in as much as it includes companies whose sales comprise a significant percentage of the market in the country,
- have members who are engaged in the distribution of LPG, either nationally or regionally

In those countries where distribution is carried out by a single company, that company may belong under the same terms as a national Association.

Any company belonging to a national Association which is itself a “FULL MEMBER” of AEGPL may make use of this fact in its external communication under conditions determined by the General Assembly.

If necessary the General Assembly can decide, upon proposal of the Steering Committee, to admit a second full member per country, provided that it represents a significant market share.

- (b) For a Pan-European or a National LPG Distributor to be admitted as a “FULL MEMBER”, it must:

- operate in European countries (EU and non-EU member states) and/or EU contracting countries;
 - be present in a minimum of three relevant countries for a Pan-European Distributor;
 - represent a significant part of the market of one or two relevant countries for a National Distributor;
 - be a member of the relevant National Associations if these Associations are already members of AEGPL;
 - have minimum annual LPG sales of 200,000 tonnes in these countries for a Pan-European Distributor, and of 100,000 tonnes for a National Distributor
- iii) Associations, companies, corporations, scientific or technical bodies with extensive interests in the LPG industry through their activities principally in (but not restricted to) the fields of exploration, production, transportation, distribution, storage, equipment, application, utilisation, safety, finance or insurance, and whose activities do not make them eligible under the above category as “FULL MEMBER”, may be admitted to AEGPL as “AFFILIATE MEMBERS”.

For a company to be admitted as an “AFFILIATE MEMBER”, it must have:

- an activity dedicated to LPG
- an European activity

It must not be eligible as “FULL MEMBER”.

Associations which are representative of the LPG Industry in countries in Europe where the structure of the LPG Industry is not sufficiently established to consider Full Membership may be admitted to AEGPL as “AFFILIATE MEMBERS”. The period of such Membership will not be longer than three years, after which it will be reviewed for a further period of no longer than three years.

No application for Affiliate Membership will be accepted from Full Members who have resigned from AEGPL.

- iv) All applications for admission as “FULL MEMBER” must be approved by the General Assembly.
- v) All applications for admission as “AFFILIATE MEMBER” must be approved by the Steering Committee or by the President.
- vi) Requests for admission must be addressed to the President of AEGPL in writing and contain an undertaking to abide by these Statutes, by the existing and future internal rules of AEGPL and by the decisions taken by the General Assembly and/or the Steering Committee.
- vii) Membership may be renounced or forfeited by:
 - a “FULL MEMBER” or an “AFFILIATE MEMBER”, in a letter of resignation addressed to the General Manager.

- a “FULL MEMBER” or an “AFFILIATE MEMBER”, which the General Assembly has decided to expel because of failure to pay subscription fees or other serious reasons.
- viii) Unless the General Assembly decides otherwise, any member resigning or being expelled remains liable for subscriptions due in past and current years. The entire annual subscription is due when resignation occurs in the course of the year. Any member resigning from AEGPL has to send a letter of notification to the General Manager six (6) months prior the end of the year, i.e. at the latest on June 30. After this date, full membership fee is due for the following year.
- ix) In accordance with European and national competition law, it is agreed and understood that each member commits itself to avoiding directly or indirectly raising any commercial issue on the occasion of any meeting organised by AEGPL, which itself is absolved of any responsibility towards its members and any third parties as regards this point.

Article 4: STRUCTURE

The organisation of AEGPL comprises: the General Assembly, the President, the previous President, the Vice-President, the Steering Committee, the Management team the General Manager and the Treasurer.

Permanent or temporary coordination groups and working groups can also be created by the Steering Committee, which will determine the objectives of said groups. Group members will be designated under the terms of Article 11, iii et iv here-under.

Article 5: THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

- i) The General Assembly of AEGPL shall be composed of:
- a) the “National Delegations” of the National Associations of the various countries represented in the capacity of “FULL MEMBERS”, but limited to one such delegation for each country irrespective of the number of national Associations in that country, and
 - b) the “Distributors’ Delegation” of the Pan-European and/or National distributors in their capacity as “FULL MEMBERS”, and
 - c) the “Affiliates’ Delegation” of the “AFFILIATE MEMBERS” acting collectively.
- ii) Each National Delegation shall consist of not more than four persons. They shall together have three votes for those having annual LPG sales of more than one million tonnes, two votes for those having annual LPG sales of more than two hundred thousand tonnes but less than one million tonnes, or one vote for those having annual LPG sales of less than two hundred thousand tonnes. Non-EU National Associations have one vote each.

The Distributors' Delegation shall consist of a maximum of two persons per Company member. Pan-European Distributors operating in a minimum of three European countries or EU contracting countries shall have two votes. National Distributors operating in one or two European countries or one or two EU contracting countries shall have one vote.

In the event that are six Affiliate Member or fewer, the Affiliates' Delegation shall consist of not more than two persons and shall have only one vote. In the event that there are between seven and fifteen Affiliate Members, the Affiliates' Delegation shall consist of not more than four persons and shall together have two votes. In the event that there are more than fifteen Affiliate Members, the Affiliates' Delegation shall consist of not more than six persons and shall together have only three votes.

- iii) Representation by proxy at a General Assembly is authorised under the following conditions:
- a) The proxy must be an individual from a company belonging to a National Association or to a Distributor, which is a "MEMBER" of AEGPL.
 - b) The same person may not accept a proxy from more than one Delegation.
 - c) The proxy must be signed by an officer of the Association which is the donor. If the delegation of that country comprises more than one Association, the proxy must be signed by an officer of each such Association.
 - d) A proxy given by the "Affiliates' Delegation" must be signed by at least two members of that Delegation.
 - e) The proxy document must reach the General Manager at least one hour before the time set for the start of the General Assembly. The proxy document must contain the full text of the Agenda and may not be used for a vote on any matter under the heading of "Any other business".
- iv) Every two years, the General Assembly shall elect amongst its "FULL MEMBERS" a President and a Vice-President belonging to different Delegations. The mandate of the President and Vice-President are renewable once for a two-year period, except as indicated in article 9.

The General Assembly shall also elect from among its "FULL MEMBERS" a Treasurer belonging to a country or a Distributor company other than that of either the President or the Vice-President, and shall fix the duration of his term of office.

- v) The General Assembly makes decisions regarding the admission and/or expulsion of members, as stipulated in article 3, determines the strategic orientations of the AEGPL, adopts the budget, and approves the accounts. The implementation of these decisions is carried out by the Steering Committee and the General Manager under the terms laid out below.

vi) The General Assembly shall meet regularly twice a year, with the first meeting to be held no later than June 30th and the second to be held no later than November 30th of each year, in order to:

- approve the annual report of the activities and accounts of the Association for the preceding calendar year
- approve the 3-year strategic plan or its actualization and the annual budget

It shall also meet whenever the President thinks fit or if one quarter of all Delegations so request. The notice period for convening a meeting is in principle four weeks, but this period may be reduced with the agreement of all members. The meeting of the General Assembly may be convened by letter, e-mail or any other means of communication. Convocations must be accompanied by an agenda, which must not any unspecified items such as "any other business".

vii) For routine matters such as election of President, Vice-President and Treasurer, election of the members of the Steering Committee, admission of members, legislation and standardisation, the General Assembly shall be deemed to be properly constituted if at least 50% of all Delegations with voting rights are present in person or by proxy. If this quorum is not present, a second General Assembly, with the same agenda, shall be convened within the space of not less than six and not more than ten weeks following the first Assembly. This second General Assembly shall be deemed to be properly constituted if at least one-third of all Delegations with voting rights are present in person or by proxy. Decisions on routine matters shall be by a simple majority of the votes of Delegations present in person or by proxy. In case of draw, the President shall have a casting vote.

viii) For exceptional matters such as: annual budget of AEGPL, dissolution of AEGPL, amendments to its Statutes, vote on an extraordinary budget, approval of the Association internal rules related to subscription calculation, as well as the application of Article 3 (ix) et (x) covering the expulsion of a member, the General Assembly shall not be properly constituted unless three-quarters of all Delegations with voting rights are present in person or by proxy. If this quorum is not present, a second General Assembly, with the same Agenda, shall be convened within the space of not less than six and not more than ten weeks from the first Assembly. This second General Assembly shall be properly constituted if at least two-thirds of all Delegations with voting rights are present in person or by proxy. Decisions of the General Assembly on such special matters shall be by, at least, three-quarters of the votes of delegations present in person or by proxy.

For matters regarding the application of Article 3 (ix) and (x), the Member in question will be excluded from the quorum and will not having voting rights. Decisions taken on exceptional matters must be taken by $\frac{3}{4}$ majority of those members present in person or by proxy
